

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER AUSTRALIAN HOTELS ASSOCIATION

- HOTEL INDUSTRY LEADERSHIP ROLE
- CANBERRA BASED

The Australian Hotels Association (AHA) seeks an experienced and highly professional corporate leader to direct and develop the ongoing success of the Association's representations and industry policy, on a national basis. This Canberra-based role will directly support the AHA Board of Management in advancing the interests of the Australian hotel sector, including developing and maintaining strategic relations with relevant stakeholders. Key responsibilities include:

- Strategic development and implementation of hotel and tourism industry policy;
- Promote and maintain the reputation and political advocacy of the Association at a national level, including liaison with relevant industry stakeholders;
- Provide advice, support and continuity to the National Board and National Executive of the Association, on policy and all other matters;
- Lead and direct the Association's National Office and its staff;
- Develop and manage the Association's industrial relations business and responsibilities as a nationally registered Union of Employers;
- Oversee the Association's governance and business affairs in accordance with the rules of the Association and the requirements of relevant legislation; and
- Manage its national media engagement requirements.

Attractive remuneration and conditions will be negotiated with the successful candidate.

To apply: Applicants may obtain the detailed Position Description, Selection Criteria and other relevant information by contacting Mr Bill Healey, AHA National Office on 0419627693 or email recruitment@aha.org.au. Applications close on Friday 4th December, 2009.