

Australian Government

The Commonwealth Government is funding the AHA to deliver a number of FREE information sessions from October 2009 on the new Fair Work Act 2009 and how it may affect you.

Dates and venues are listed below. All sessions are two hours in duration and open to non-members as well as members.

The sessions will run in many locations from October 2009 through to December 2009 and will focus on important concepts that employers subject to the federal workplace relations system need to be familiar with.

Concepts covered are:

- Fair Work Australia
- Dismissals
- Enterprise Bargaining
- Fair Work Ombudsman
- Right of Entry
- National Employment Standards

We will address the above concepts, how they apply, and what the new legislation means for them as employers.

Dates, venues and times are listed below. All sessions are two hours in duration, and are FREE.

Information and a copy of the presentation will be available at each session.
