

KNOW YOUR AWARD

As part of the partnership between the Australian Hotels Association and the Fair Work Ombudsman, hotels across Australia are now able to access information to assist in understanding the application of the Hospitality Industry (General) Award 2010.

The attached booklet is one of the tools developed. It provides a basic overview of the key elements of employing under the Award. This booklet is also available for download from the AHA website www.aha.org.au, along with an online seminar and other materials to assist you to comply with the new Award system.

The AHA is also conducting four teleconferences which will provide opportunities to ask questions or clarify about any aspect of the Award. Spaces are limited to please register your participation by completing the form below.
