Liberals spread the word on our positive plan for a self-reliant Tasmania

On Sunday evening, the first of the Liberals' advertisements aimed at promoting our positive plan for a self-reliant Tasmania aired on Southern Cross television.

The ad outlines how a majority Liberal Government would set about working to get Tasmania standing on its own two feet - with our positive 'open for business' policy agenda.

To view the advertisement, simply click here.

You can also review our Future Directions Statement that outlines our vision for Tasmania here.

I would encourage you to share the ad with your friends and, as ever, I am interested in your feedback to the advertisement and our Future Directions Statement.
