

Dear members,

Qantas Australian Tourism Awards

Tickets are selling fast to the Qantas Australian Tourism Awards. Here is the link to purchase Award tickets, accommodation and flights. Could you please distribute the following message about the Tourism Awards via your e-news and other member communications?

The Qantas Australian Tourism Awards are being held in Cairns on Friday 2nd March 2012. Tickets on sale now <http://australianaward.com.au/2011-awards/event/> Over 180 finalists are competing to be one of 27 winners at the industry's peak awards. Entertainment, fine food and wine will make this an evening to remember.

Pacific Asia Indigenous Tourism Conference - March 28-30, 2012, Darwin

A reminder about the upcoming Pacific Asia Indigenous Tourism Conference. The Pacific Asia Travel Association, Tourism Northern Territory and the Australian Tourism Export Council are staging the first ever International conference devoted to expanding the profile, perception and scope of Indigenous tourism, particularly in the Pacific Asia Region.

A concentrated program featuring top international speakers and allowing the opportunity to exchange experiences and knowledge has been put together and is available on the conference website. The theme of the conference will be "Tourism and Indigenous People – Enriching our Future Together"

Early bird registrations are available until the end of January. Details of the program and speakers, booking arrangements, pre and post tours and special conference fares on Qantas are available of the conference website <http://www.paitc.com>. The conference brochure is available here.

Best regards

Tim Lisle-Williams
Policy and Industry Affairs Manager
National Tourism Alliance

Ph: 02 9264 2185 Mobile: 0406 330 963

The NEW Australian Tourism Awards website is live and now taking bookings for the Qantas Australian Tourism Awards Presentation and Dinner on 2/3/12

www.australianaward.com.au

The NTA thanks its national sponsors

