High Court Decision To Be Examined

The Treasurer, Michael Aird, said today that he had sought advice on yesterday's High Court decision and its effect on Tasmania's liquor licensing laws.

"While on first reading it would seem that the decision relates only to the application of the law of negligence, I have asked Treasury to examine the decision of the High Court and the likely effect, if any, on Tasmania's liquor licensing laws.

"I will await the Treasury advice."
